About the Retreat Centre - La Laguna
‘Where Europe meets Africa ‘

Nestling within ‘The Strait’ National park is our authentic Andalusian Finca. La Laguna de Bolonia. Our ecologically minded Finca is the optimum environment in which to practice new skills and to perfect existing ones. These tranquil surroundings will allow you to journey deeper into yoga. The focal point of La Laguna is our wonderful Shala with its open space and beautiful surroundings. Situated only a short distance away are the beautiful sandy beaches of Bolonia and Valdecaqueros. These open spaces beaches are ideal for unwinding and relaxing. The food is locally sourced or grown in the farm’s allotment. All our meals are prepared and supervised by the head of the “sabe-e-arte” gastronomic association.

About the facilitator

Candido has been practising yoga for over 9 years, his Vinyasa flow classes are dynamic, but include depth and attention to detail that reflects the teachings of his mentor, Parveen Nair, Iyengar teacher in Rishikesh. His inspiration comes from teachers, who through their devotion and love for this sacred practice, drew him into the path of yoga.

JC is passionate about teaching yoga to others and to be able to share this wonderful practice which has the power to transform lives is nothing but an incredible privilege for him and that's why he wants to offer you the chance to share this outstanding experience with him.

This yoga retreat is open to all ages and levels of fitness and experience. Every session will have the attention to details (the alignment and the biomechanics), the awareness of breath (Pranayama), openness to grace (Attitude) and the intelligence sequencing (Vinyasa). All sessions will be adapted to the group and modifications to the pose will be offered to cater for all participants to ensure that everyone is receiving the benefits of the practice and the individual attention.
